The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 19, to Saturday December 23, 1749.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of December, 1749.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS his Majeſty hath received Information, that the many Rules, Orders and Regulations, made from Time to Time by his Majeſty at this Board, for putting a Stop to the Spreading of the contagious Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle, have not produced the good Effects intended, the ſaid Diſtemper having not only ſpread itſelf to moſt Parts of this Kingdom, but doth at this Time rage with a Malignity and Violence very little ſhort of what had appeared at its firſt Breaking out; and that the principal Cauſe of the Continuance of the ſaid Diſtemper, hath been the great Neglect of the Officers appointed to carry his Majeſty's aforementioned Rules and Regulations into due Execution, and particularly the ſuffering Cattle to be bought, ſold, removed, and carried to Fairs and Markets, without the proper Certificates of the Health of the Cattle, as required by the ſaid Rules, and the many Frauds and Impoſitions that have been committed by the Perſons entruſted with the ſaid Certificates, ſo that it is become abſolutely neceſſary, in order to prevent the further ſpreading of the ſaid Contagion, to put the Liberty of buying, ſelling and removing of Horned Cattle under other and ſtronger Rules and Regulations:—And whereas his Majeſty hath this Day taken this Matter into his moſt ſerious Conſideration, and being deſirous of doing every Thing in his Power towards putting a Stop to the ſaid Diſtemper, hath therefore thought proper, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, That after the Fourteenth Day of January next, and before the Fourteenth Day of March following, no Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer, or Heifer, within England, whether fat or lean, ſick or well, be removed from the Grounds, Lands or Places where they ſhall be on the ſaid Fourteenth Day of January, excepting only ſuch ſound and fat Cattle, fit for Slaughter, as ſhall be removed in order to be ſlaughtered at ſome uninfected Place within the Diſtance of two Miles from the Place where they ſhall be on the ſaid Fourteenth Day of January, by Virtue of a Certificate to be granted by ſome duly qualified Juſtice of Peace, or Commiſſioner of the Land Tax under his Hand and Seal, expreſſing the Deſcription and Soundneſs of ſuch Cattle, the Place from and to which they are to be removed; and which Certificates ſhall not be granted but on full Enquiry into, and full Satisfaction had by ſuch Juſtice of the Peace, or Commiſſioner of the Land Tax, on Oath of the Soundneſs of ſuch Cattle.

And it is hereby further ordered, That the Church-Wardens, Overſeers of the Poor, Conſtables, and ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as have been, or ſhall be appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace, in Purſuance of any Order made by his Majeſty in Council, do ſtop any ſuch Cattle which ſhall be driven contrary to this Order, or to any of the Acts of Parliament made in Relation to the diſtempered Cattle, and carry the Offender or Offenders before ſome Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, to be puniſhed according to the aforeſaid Acts.

Provided, and it is declared, that this Order is not intended to prohibit the Carriage of Carcaſſes of any Cattle not infected, without their Hides, to ſuch Places, and in ſuch Manner, as the reſpective Owners thereof ſhall think fit; nor to prohibit the Removal of ſuch Cattle, as ſhall be in Want of Paſture, into other Grounds belonging to or in Poſſeſſion of the Owner of ſuch Cattle, not above the Diſtance of Two Miles from the Places where the ſame ſhall be on the ſaid Fourteenth Day of January, nor within One Mile of any infected Place.

Provided alſo, that nothing herein contained ſhall extend to prohibit the Removal of any ſuch Cattle, which ſhall be within the Dominion of Wales, from one Part of the ſaid Dominion of Wales to any other Part thereof; nor to prohibit or reſtrain the Removal of any ſuch Cattle which ſhall be in any of Counties of Somerſet, Dorſet, Devon and Cornwall, from one Place to another within the ſaid Counties, but without going into any other than the abovementioned Counties, which are all repreſented to be, not only only free from the ſaid Infection, but at a conſiderable Diſtance from the infected Parts of this Kingdom.

And it is hereby further ordered, that ſo much of his Majeſty's Order in Council of the 22d of March 1747, as relates to the driving or removing of any Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, Steers or Heifers, from one Place to another, by Virtue of any Certificate or Certificates, ſhall, from and after the ſaid Fourteenth of January next, until the Fourteenth of March following, be and ſtand ſuſpended, and not put in Execution as to any Caſes happening within the Time aforeſaid.

And for the better Execution of ſo much of his Majeſty's ſaid former Order in Council of the 22d of March 1747, as relates to the killing and burying the diſtempered Cattle, it is hereby further ordered, that during the Continuance of this and the ſaid Order of the 22d of March 1747, the Owners of all Horned Cattle do, as ſoon as the Diſtemper ſhall appear in or among any of the ſaid Cattle, immediately give Notice thereof to the Conſtable of the Town or Pariſh, and alſo to the Church Wardens and Overſeers of the Pariſh or Place where ſuch infected Cattle ſhall be, of the Appearance of ſuch Infection, or to any Inſpector already appointed or to be appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace for the Diſtrict where ſuch Pariſh or Place ſhall lie.

And his Majeſty doth hereby further order and command, that the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, do grant the Certificates allowed by this Order gratis; and that they do not ſuffer their Clerks, or other Perſon or Perſons any Ways concerned in iſſuing ſuch Certificates, to ask, demand, receive, or take any Fee, Reward, Gratuity, or Sum of Money whatſoever, under Pretence of making out ſuch Certificates, or for any Act or Thing done in Relation thereto.

And his Majeſty doth hereby ſtrictly charge and command all his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the ſeveral Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, Cities, Liberties, and Towns Corporate within this Kingdom, and alſo the Commiſſioners of the Land Tax authorized to act herein, to carry this his Majeſty's Order of Council into Execution; as likewiſe all the Rules and Regulations relating to the diſtemper'd Cattle, and alſo to Hides, contained in the aforementioned Order of his Majeſty in Council, dated the 22d of March 1747, ſo far as the ſame are not varied by this preſent Order, and more eſpecially ſuch Parts thereof as relate to the Killing and Burying of any ſuch diſtemper'd Cattle, and the Cleanſing and Purifying the Houſes, Buildings, and Places, where any ſuch infected Cattle ſhall have ſtood, or been killed; and likewiſe to carry into Execution the ſeveral Acts of Parliament made in relation to the ſaid Cattle: And that they do likewiſe cauſe the Penalties, directed by the ſaid Acts, to be inflicted on all Perſons who ſhall diſobey any of the Rules, Orders, and Regulations made by his Majeſty in Council.

And for the better notifying of this Order, it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that the ſame be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and be alſo inſerted in the next London Gazette, and be likewiſe read in all Pariſh Churches, Chapels, and other Places ſet apart for Divine Worſhip, on the Firſt and every other Sunday after the Publication hereof.

William Sharpe.

Weſtminſter, December 20.

His Majeſty came this Day to the Houſe of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes, ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, the Honourable Mr. Bellenden, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from His Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majeſty was pleaſed to give the Royal Aſſent to,

An Act for granting an Aid to his Majeſty by a Land Tax to be raiſed in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty.

And to four private Bills.

Whitehall, December 21.

On Saturday laſt James Cleverly, one of his Majeſty's Meſſengers, arrived here with Diſpatches from his Excellency the Earl of Albemarle, containing a Duplicate of the moſt Chriſtian King's Orders to the Governor of Martinico, for the immediate Evacuation of the Iſlands of Sta Lucia, St. Vincent, Domenica, and Tabago: which Duplicate, together with ſimilar Orders on the Part of his Majeſty to the Governor of Barbadoes, has been already diſpatched to that Governor by the Jamaica Sloop of War.

Moſcow, Nov. 27. The Froſt is now ſet in again with greater Severity than it did before the late Thaw, but as yet there is but little Snow fallen. On the 24th Inſtant was celebrated at Court the Nuptials of Count Iwan Czetnizew with the young Counteſs Jephimowski, as were thoſe of M. Narinski with Mademoiſelle de Repnin; as theſe two Ladies were both Maids of Honour to her Imperial Majeſty, all the Foreign Miniſters were invited to the Entertainments given on this Occaſion, which laſted for two Days.

Peterſbourg, Dec. 4. Laſt Week arrived here the Retinue and Baggage of General d'Arnheim, who is coming to reſide at this Court in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Poland, and his Excellency is daily expected.

Naples,

Naples, Dec. 2, N. S. The King has appointed the Duke of Miranda to be Great Butler to his Majesty, in the room of the Duke of Turfi, who died lately at Rome; and the Marquis of St. Marco is to succeed the Duke of Miranda in the Post of Master of the Horse. The King has confirmed M. Cito in the Post of Director of the Custom-house at Foggia.

Rome, Dec. 6, N. S. Preparations are making at the Vatican for the Pope, who is to remove thither on the 25th Instant, in order to be nigh at Hand to perform the Functions of the Holy Year. Cardinal Aldrovandi, Bishop of Monte Fiascone, having permitted, by an Edict which he caused to be published, the sending of Corn out of his Bishoprick, contrary to the Pope's Orders, the Secretary of State has, by another Edict, declared void the Permission of the said Cardinal Aldrovandi. The Pope, to enable the Roman Senate to make a decent Appearance in the Attendance they are to give at the Ceremonies of the Holy Year, has lent them 16,000 Crowns, to enable them to purchase a suitable Equipage for that Purpose. On the 1st Instant the Pope held a private Consistory, in which he appointed a Vicar Apostolick of Aquilea, in the Venetian Dominions, and fixed the Ceremonial for the Coronation of the Emperor.

Marseilles, Dec. 10, N. S. We learn from Constantinople, that most of the Jew Merchants, residing in the Suburbs of that City, had quitted their Habitations, and retired into the Country, on Account of a contagious Distemper breaking out at Adrianople, which spreads very fast, and carries off a great Number of Persons.

Florence, Dec. 12, N. S. On the 5th Instant, at Night, M. de Richecourt, Baron Toussaint, M. Acton, Colonel Mill, M. Lowther, &c. returned to this City from Leghorne; and by the best Accounts of their Transactions in that Place, it is asserted, that the Project for trading to the East Indies is quite laid aside. On the 8th the Emperor's Birth-day was celebrated with the usual Solemnity, on which Occasion the Foreign Ministers, the Nobility, and Military Officers, appeared in their rich Habits, many of whom were entertained at Dinner by M. de Richecourt.

Parma, Dec. 12, N. S. Their Serene Highnesses the Duke and Dutchess have at last settled their Household, though not entirely to the Satisfaction of the Nobility of Placentia. The Court intending to pass some Weeks at Colorno, the Marquess de Leede and M. Tillet, went thither last Week to make the necessary Preparations for their Reception. The Duke de Montelegre, Ambassador from his Catholick Majesty to the Republick of Venice, is soon expected here; as is also the Marquess de Grimaldi, in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the Grand Master of Malta, to compliment their Highnesses upon their happy Arrival.

Stockholm, Dec. 12. The King has lately made a Promotion of military Officers, amongst whom M. Christian Barnekow has been appointed Major General; Baron Charles Alderfelt, and Count Ponte de la Gardie, Adjutants General; Baron Funck, Liutenant Colonel; and M. Charpentier, Major.

Augsbourg, Dec. 17, N. S. We are informed by our last Letters from Munich, that the Reduction which the Elector of Bavaria had ordered to be made in his Troops, is countermanded, and that Orders had been given by his Electoral Highness for raising Recruits, and compleating his Regiments.

Vienna, Dec. 18, N. S. The Queen of Hungary has sent positive Orders to the Officers of her Troops posted in Hungary and Transilvania, to take all imaginable Precautions to stop all Persons and Effects coming from the Frontiers of Turkey and Poland, her Majesty having received certain Advice, that a contagious Distemper continues to make great Havock in those Countries. Count Pallavicini is expected here in a few Days from Milan, to lay before the Court the State of Affairs in Italy, as well with Regard to the Condition of their Imperial Majesties Troops in Lombardy, as to the Finances of the Dutchy of Milan and its Dependencies. General Count de Colloredo, Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to that of Sardinia, is preparing to set out next Week for Turin. His Imperial Majesty has appointed the young Count d'Altheim to be one of his Chamberlains.

Copenhagen, Dec. 20, N. S. The 11th Instant being the Anniversary of the Marriage of their Majesties, the same was celebrated at Court; when Numbers of the Nobility of both Sexes appeared in very rich Habits to compliment their Majesties on that Occasion. On the 12th arrived here the Baron de Vos, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Prussia, and 'tis expected will have his first Audience of his Majesty in a few Days. Two Ships belonging to our East India Company, the one bound for China, and the other for Tranquebar, are now at Helseneur, and will put to Sea with the first fair Wind.

Paris, Dec. 26, N. S. On the 24th Instant the Court went out of Mourning for the late Landgrave of Hesse Rhinfelds; and To-morrow the King proposes setting out for Choisy for two or three Days. His Majesty has appointed M. Auty, late Major of the Bastile, to be Lieutenant thereof, and M. Cavalier succeeds him as Major. Part of the Retinue of M. Berkenrode, the new Ambassador from the States General, being already arrived here, 'tis expected M. de St. Contest, Ambassador from this Court to that of their High Mightinesses, will soon be setting forwards for the Hague. Prince Frederick of Hesse Cassel proposes leaving this Place, in a few Days, on a Tour to Italy.

Hague, Dec. 30, N. S. His Royal Highness the Prince of Orange assisted this Day at an Assembly of their High Mightinesses, when several Military Officers, who had been promoted by his Highness, took the usual Oaths before the Council

Council of State, for their different Employments. A few Days ago the Prince of Bade-Bade ſet out from hence on his Return to Germany; and M. Kalkoen is expected to ſet out in a few Days for the Court of Dreſden, in Quality of Miniſter Plenipotentiary from their High Mightineſſes.
